

EXPOSURE TRIP TO MANALI (HIMACHAL PRADESH) VIA DELHI

Department of Geography, 6th Semester, 2023

Date: 29th June - 8 th July 2023

Duration: 9 Nights & 10 Days

No. of students: 30

No. of faculty members: 03

Objective: To provide students with the unique learning experience outside the classroom while exploring the natural and cultural heritage of the region. Here are some specific objectives of the Delhi and Manali tour: -

- Environmental Education
- Cultural Exploration
- Adventure and Outdoor education
- Photography and Documentation
- Local Economy and Tourism

State visited: Himachal Pradesh, New Delhi, and Uttar Pradesh. State crossed: Assam, West Bengal, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, New Delhi, Haryana, Punjab, and Himachal Pradesh.

Total Journey: By Train- 1855km KamakhyaDelhi + 1885km Delhi-Kamakhya, 40 hours (going) + 38 hours (return). By bus – 560 km New Delhi- Manali + 570 km Manali-New Delhi approx Other mode of transportation experienced by metro – 6.5 km Vasant Vihar-Sarojini Nagar (37 mins), 6.5 Sarojini Nagar-Vasant Vihar (37mins).

Important Landmark: Brahmaputra River, Ganges River, Chenab River, Beas River, Yamuna River, Qutub Minar, Red Fort, India Gate, Taj Mahal, Vashist Hot Water Spring, Rohtang Pass, Gullaba, Kullu, Atal Tunnel, Solang Valley, Naggar Castle, Dhakpo Shedrupling Monastery

Figure 1: Rohtang Tunnel

Figure 2: Central Library, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi

Figure 3: Qutub Minar, Delhi

Figure: Dagpo Shedrupling Monastery, Kullu

Figure 4: India Gate

Figure 6: Taj Mahal, Agra

Figure 5: Old Delhi Railway Station

Figure 7: Delhi Metro

Figure 8: Rohtang Pass

Figure 9: JNU Campus

