DEAR SECMUNMEMBERS AND WELL WISHERS,

I WAS AMAZED TO REALIZE THAT SECMUN HAD REACHED ITS TENTH ANNIVERSARY. WHAT AN INCREDIBLE JOURNEY IT'S BEEN! REFLECTING BACK TO 2014, I REMEMBER BEING FILLED WITH PASSION AND A STRONG DESIRE TO MAKE A POSITIVE IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY. I USED TO BE A TIMID STUDENT, OFTEN STRUGGLING WITH STUTTERING DURING SPEECHES AND PRESENTATIONS AT COLLEGE, WHICH HINDERED MY CONFIDENCE. SEEKING TO OVERCOME THESE CHALLENGES, I ATTENDED THE FIRST SESSION OF THE NORTH EAST INDIA INTERNATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS (NEIMUN) IN DECEMBER 2013 AT KOHIMA, NAGALAND. THAT EXPERIENCE PLANTED THE SEED OF CHANGE IN ME, EVENTUALLY LEADING TO THE INITIATION OF SECMUN IN OCTOBER 2014. LOOKING BACK, I FONDLY RECALL THE EFFORTS TO PERSUADE THE PRINCIPAL ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF FORMING THIS CLUB AND ITS BENEFITS FOR ENHANCING SOFT SKILLS ESPECIALLY FOR STUDENTS. I RALLIED SUPPORT FROM PROFESSORS IN VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS LIKE SOCIOLOGY (MY OWN DEPARTMENT), GEOGRAPHY, SOCIAL WORK, HISTORY, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE, AS WELL AS FROM THE IQAC COORDINATOR AT THAT TIME, SIR MONOTOSH CHAKRAVARTY ALONG WITH SEEKING THE SUPPORT OF LIKE MINDED STUDENTS TO BE PART OF THE MUN CLUB. IT WAS A JOURNEY OF PERSISTENCE, INVOLVING NUMEROUS DISCUSSIONS AND NEGOTIATIONS, WITH CRUCIAL BACKING FROM MY MENTOR AND MY LIFE-LONG FRIEND, SIR GIDEON KHARKONGOR FROM THE GEOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT. SECMUN BREATHE LIFE ONLY BECAUSE OF ALL THESE SUPPORT WHEN THE CONCEPT OF MODEL UNITED NATIONS WAS ALIEN AND

NEW IN INDIA'S NORTHEAST.

AMIDST THESE ENDEAVORS, A GROUP OF US STUDENTS CAME TOGETHER TO DRAFT THE CLUB'S MISSION AND OBJECTIVES THROUGH EXTENSIVE DEBATES AND DISCUSSIONS. WE ULTIMATELY SETTLED ON THE TAGLINE 'POWER OF YOUTH- POWER OF CHANGE' FOR THE SECMUN WHILE PLAYING U2'S SONG 'ORDINARY LOVE' AT THE BACKDROP. THE SONG STILL PLAYS SO VIVIDLY: "I CAN'T FIGHT YOU ANYMORE IT'S YOU I'M FIGHTING FOR THE SEA THROWS ROCKS TOGETHER BUT TIME LEAVES US POLISHED STONES" AT THE CLUB'S INAUGURATION, I RECALL WE GATHERED ESTEEMED INDIVIDUALS SUCH AS LIMABENLA JAMIR, THE FOUNDER OF NEIMUN; H.H MOHRMEN, A PROMINENT ENVIRONMENTALIST; FARIDA WARJRI, THE FORMER HEAD OF THE SOCIAL WORK DEPARTMENT; AND JOY GRACE SYIEM, A HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYER, AS SPECIAL GUESTS. DR. SYLVANUS LAMARE, THE THEN PRINCIPAL, ALONG WITH SEVERAL PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS FROM VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS OF THE COLLEGE, ALSO JOINED US IN THE AV ROOM. THIS MARKED THE BEGINNING OF SECMUN, WHERE OUR JOURNEY COMMENCED. WITH NOTHING BUT DREAMS AND HOPES, WE AIMED TO FOSTER A BETTER COMMUNITY AND ASSIST STUDENTS IN DEVELOPING ESSENTIAL LIFE SKILLS. AS I LOOK BACK ON THESE MEMORIES AND OUR JOURNEY, I AM FILLED WITH PRIDE TO SEE HOW MUCH WE HAVE ACHIEVED DESPITE THE CHALLENGES WE FACED. SECMUN IS NOT JUST A PLATFORM, BUT A DRIVING FORCE FOR CHANGE—A SPACE WHERE IDEAS ARE EXCHANGED, INNOVATIONS ARE BORN, AND TOGETHER, WE TACKLE THE ISSUES AND OPPORTUNITIES THAT CONFRONT YOUNG PEOPLE IN OUR REGION. KEEP ENVISIONING AND SHAPING A FUTURE WHERE YOUNG MINDS DARE TO DREAM BIGGER AND BOLDER, FUELED BY UNWAVERING HOPE AND A SPIRIT OF COLLABORATION, OPEN-MINDEDNESS, AND A SHARED DEDICATION TO MAKING A POSITIVE IMPACT THAT KNOWS NO BOUNDS. WITH THESE ASPIRATIONS AND DREAMS, MAY THE JOURNEY OF SECMUN CONTINUE!

"IT BRINGS ME AN IMMENSE SENSE OF FULFILLMENT AND PRIDE TO EXTEND THIS HEARTFELT MESSAGE OF ENCOURAGEMENT TO ALL THE ESTEEMED MEMBERS OF ST. EDMUND'S COLLEGE, MODEL UNITED NATIONS (SECMUN) CLUB, AS THEY GEAR UP FOR THE HIGHLY ANTICIPATED INTER-COLLEGE MEET ON THE 6TH AND 7TH OF MAY, 2024. FROM THE VERY MOMENT THE SEED OF ORGANIZING SUCH A PRESTIGIOUS EVENT WAS PLANTED, THE UNWAVERING ENTHUSIASM AND DEDICATION EXHIBITED BY EACH MEMBER HAVE BEEN NOTHING SHORT OF INSPIRING. YOUR COLLECTIVE PASSION AND DRIVE HAVE SET A REMARKABLE PRECEDENT, ONE THAT I AM CONFIDENT WILL CONTINUE TO SHINE BRIGHTLY THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE DURATION OF THE EVENT.

THE CHOSEN THEME, "DIPLOMATIC OUTREACH FOR GLOBAL PEACE," ENCAPSULATES A PROFOUND VISION OF HOPE AND SOLIDARITY, RESONATING DEEPLY AMIDST THE MULTIFACETED CHALLENGES OF OUR CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL STAGE. IN A WORLD OFTEN CHARACTERIZED BY DIVISION AND DISCORD, THIS THEME STANDS AS A TESTAMENT TO THE ENDURING POWER OF DIPLOMACY AND COOPERATION IN FOSTERING POSITIVE CHANGE.

AT ITS CORE, THIS THEME UNDERSCORES THE PIVOTAL ROLE THAT PLATFORMS LIKE SECMUN PLAY IN SHAPING THE NARRATIVE OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. BY PROVIDING A FORUM FOR DIALOGUE AND DEBATE, SECMUN SERVES AS A CRUCIBLE WHERE DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES CONVERGE, FACILITATING A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF GLOBAL ISSUES AND FOSTERING EMPATHY ACROSS BOUNDARIES.

AS DELEGATES DELVE INTO THE INTRICACIES OF THIS THEME, I URGE THEM TO APPROACH THEIR DISCUSSIONS WITH A SPIRIT OF OPEN-MINDEDNESS AND HUMILITY. LET WISDOM GUIDE YOUR DELIBERATIONS, DRAWING UPON THE COLLECTIVE WISDOM OF YOUR PEERS TO NAVIGATE COMPLEX ISSUES WITH NUANCE AND INSIGHT. EMPATHY, TOO, MUST BE A GUIDING PRINCIPLE, AS YOU SEEK TO UNDERSTAND THE PERSPECTIVES AND EXPERIENCES OF OTHERS WITH COMPASSION AND RESPECT.

ABOVE ALL, LET YOUR DISCUSSIONS BE DRIVEN BY A SHARED COMMITMENT TO THE COMMON GOOD. RECOGNIZE THAT THE PURSUIT OF GLOBAL PEACE REQUIRES COLLABORATION AND COMPROMISE, TRANSCENDING INDIVIDUAL INTERESTS IN FAVOUR OF THE GREATER GOOD. AS YOU ENGAGE IN DIALOGUE AND NEGOTIATION, REMEMBER THAT THE DECISIONS YOU MAKE HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO SHAPE THE COURSE OF HISTORY, IMPACTING THE LIVES OF PEOPLE AROUND THE WORLD.

IN THE SPIRIT OF "DIPLOMATIC OUTREACH FOR GLOBAL PEACE," I CHALLENGE EACH DELEGATE TO EMBRACE THEIR ROLE AS AMBASSADORS OF CHANGE, WORKING TIRELESSLY TO BUILD BRIDGES OF UNDERSTANDING AND COOPERATION IN PURSUIT OF A BETTER WORLD FOR ALL. MAY YOUR EFFORTS BE GUIDED BY INTEGRITY AND CONVICTION, AS YOU STRIVE TO LEAVE A LASTING LEGACY OF PEACE AND PROGRESS IN THE WORLD.

MAY YOUR EFFORTS BE GUIDED BY INTEGRITY AND CONVICTION, AS YOU STRIVE TO LEAVE A LASTING LEGACY OF PEACE AND PROGRESS IN THE WORLD.

I AM WHOLEHEARTEDLY CONVINCED THAT THE DILIGENT RESEARCH AND INSIGHTFUL DELIBERATIONS OF EACH PARTICIPANT WILL NOT ONLY ENRICH THE DISCOURSE BUT ALSO PAVE THE WAY FOR INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS AND ENDURING PARTNERSHIPS. AS SECMUN MEET 4.0 UNFOLDS, I HAVE NO DOUBT THAT YOUR COLLECTIVE EFFORTS WILL CULMINATE IN FRUITFUL AND PEACEFUL RESOLUTIONS THAT HAVE THE POWER TO SHAPE THE COURSE OF HISTORY.

TO ALL THOSE INVOLVED IN ORGANIZING THIS MONUMENTAL EVENT AND TO EVERY PARTICIPANT WHO WILL LEND THEIR VOICE TO THE DIALOGUE, I EXTEND MY SINCEREST WISHES FOR SUCCESS. MAY YOUR JOURNEY BE MARKED BY MOMENTS OF PROFOUND DISCOVERY, CAMARADERIE, AND PERSONAL GROWTH. EMBRACE THIS OPPORTUNITY WITH OPEN HEARTS AND MINDS, KNOWING THAT YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO MAKE A MEANINGFUL DIFFERENCE IN THE WORLD. FINDING OUT THAT SECMUN WILL BE PUBLISHING A CLUB MAGAZINE IN 2024 BRINGS ME GREAT JOY. IN MY CAPACITY AS A CLUB ADVISOR, ALLOW ME TO SAY WITH GREAT EXCITEMENT THAT THE CLUB IS UNLOCKING THE HIDDEN ABILITY OF ITS YOUNG MINDS.

THIS ASPIRATIONAL CLUB'S MAIN GOAL IS TO LEAD WITH CREATIVITY AND ADVANCE BY FORESEEING CHANGE EVEN IN ENVIRONMENTS WHERE OTHERS BELIEVE IT IS NOT REQUIRED. TO SET OUT ON A VOYAGE THAT WILL TRANSFORM LIVES AND PROVIDE YOUNG PEOPLE THE ABILITY TO MAKE NEW FRIENDS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD, GAIN CONFIDENCE IN LEADING OTHERS, AND INCREASE THEIR KNOWLEDGE OF GLOBAL ISSUES.

OVER THE LAST FEW YEARS, I HAVE WITNESSED A LOT OF ENERGETIC STUDENTS WHO ARE INTELLIGENT, DILIGENT, ENGAGING, COORDINATED, AND SO ON, PERFORM AT DIFFERENT EVENTS AND CONFERENCES WHERE STUDENTS WERE ASSIGNED COMMITTEES AND COUNTRIES TO REPRESENT, AND THEY ACT AS DELEGATES TO TRY AND RESOLVE REAL-WORLD PROBLEMS USING THE VIEWPOINTS AND POLICIES OF THEIR DESIGNATED NATION. THE YOUTH OF TODAY, IN MY OPINION, HAVE THE VOICE AND THE VISION TO TRANSFORM THEMSELVES.

I HOPE THAT SECMUN WILL CONTINUE TO ENCOURAGE BUDDING LEADERS AND PREPARE THEM TO PARTICIPATE IN THE DIPLOMATIC ARENA.

I URGE ST. EDMUND'S COLLEGE STUDENTS TO JOIN THE CLUB AND PARTICIPATE IN THOUGHT-PROVOKING CONVERSATIONS, EXCHANGE IDEAS, SHARE OPINIONS, PARTAKE IN DEBATES, UNDERSTAND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, AND ACQUIRE WORLD PERSPECTIVES.

LAST BUT NOT LEAST, I CONGRATULATE THE EDITORIAL TEAM, ALL THE STUDENT MEMBERS, AND THE STAFF MEMBERS OF THE CLUB FOR THEIR CONTRIBUTION TO THE SUCCESS OF THE SECMUN MAGAZINE 2024, AND BEST WISHES TO ALL.

THANKING YOU

What is SECMUN?

St. Edmunds College Model United Nation (SECMUN) Club as an educational based College Club functions as a simulation on lines of the United Nations (UN). It calls for the mention of the revolutionary change of some students' with some motive in mind to bring up the leadership quality, to bring up the diplomatic conception of each of the member and to motivate and teach people regarding the geopolitical variations and areas that call for global participation and engagement. The formation of the Club dates back to the backdrop of the North East India Model United Nations (NEIMUN) Conference held at Shillong in the year 2014. The primary objective of the Club then was to spread awareness about MUN to the students of the College, as well as nurture aspiring participants and encourage them to participate in MUN events held in the North Eastern region.

After detailed discussion and conversion, the Club came up with it's first Conference, SECMUN 1.0 in 2016 during the College month, EDBLAZON 2016. The successive editions of the Conference took place with no stop as SECMUN 2.0 and SECMUN 3.0 in the year 2017 and 2018 respectively. The 4th edition of The Conference was planned with sheer dedication and enthusiasm by the then Secretariat however had to be initially postponed and later had to be cancelled due to global SARS Cov-2 pandemic. The Club came in full strength from 2023 and hosted the Intra SECMUN Conference and what you read now is as part of the SECMUN 4.0 on the 6th & 7th May, 2024.

What is SECMUN?

As SECMUN Club celebrates a decade old journey of Diplomatic Outreach for Global Peace which is also the theme of this year's Conference, it strives to reach the maximum in all capacities and be a wheel in the vehicle of global change and transformation. In its enduring motion to discover solutions and resolutions to pressing global challenges, it calls for the participation of one and all and make this space one such that welcomes unity in diversity, and above all international peace and prosperity.

Empowering Youth Diplomacy: A Reflection on SECMUN's 2017-18 Journey

As the former President and General Secretary of the St. Edmund College Model United Nations (SECMUN) Club and Conference of 2017-2018, I am immensely proud to reflect on our pioneering journey in SECMUN Shillong. SECMUN stands as a testament to the power of youth engagement and diplomatic discourse.

Our initiation into the world of Model United Nations was marked by a sense of excitement and responsibility. Being one of the first colleges to host such conferences in Shillong, we were determined to set a high standard. Blessed with an exceptional team, we endeavored to provide the best MUN experience in our city.

Guided by the vision of our founders, the support of our principal, and the dedication of our teachers, SECMUN became a beacon of diplomacy and dialogue. We aimed to create a platform where young minds could delve into socio-political and environmental issues, fostering a spirit of open discourse.

Our conferences were meticulously crafted around pertinent themes such as "Fostering sustainable development through Science-Youth for Actions" and "Sustainability, Peace, and Security". These themes ignited passionate debates and discussions, empowering delegates to delve into global challenges and potential solutions.

Preparation for the conferences involved rigorous mock debates and discussions within the club, ensuring that our delegates were well-equipped to engage meaningfully. The culmination of these efforts was the memorable three-day SECMUN conferences in 2017 and 2018.

From brainstorming agendas with teachers to selecting chairpersons and welcoming delegates from across the Northeast, every step was met with enthusiasm and joy. The participation of college authorities, ambassadors, and delegates further enriched the experience.

Hosting these conferences in the picturesque location of St. Edmund's College, Shillong, added a touch of charm to the proceedings. It provided the perfect backdrop for youth to come together and discuss pressing global issues in a serene environment.

As the Secretary-General and Club President, I am filled with pride to have been a part of the SECMUN family. Together, we raised the College and SECMUN flag high, offering a platform for youth to engage, learn, and grow as future leaders in diplomacy and international affairs. SECMUN's journey continues to inspire, reminding us of the importance of youth empowerment and global dialogue. It is a testament to what can be achieved when passionate individuals come together with a shared vision for a better world.

A Moment of Epiphany

I recall waiting quietly with the rest of the interviewees in the big, old fashioned hall. I could see the curtains that once red, were now turned maroon due to the gathered dust. There were 4 interviewers, each calling names at random. Out of the 4, there was one lady in particular, I was hoping wouldn't call my name, but as fate would have it, she did!

“Hello Sonia, how are you feeling today?” She started with an attempt to break the ice. I may have, actually, I did give off some nervous energy. As she went on to ask me a few questions, she landed on the part of my resume, where I so proudly mentioned about my experiences with Model United Nations. It's like, she pushed the right button and suddenly I had the gift of the gab. My interviewer was pretty impressed and I swear, she smiled only while interviewing me. As I returned to my seat, waiting for the next round. I had a Moment of Epiphany.

I looked back on my journey with MUN, and I was overcome with a heartfelt gratitude. It's amazing how this experience has woven new friendships into the fabric of my life.

In the heart of every conference, amidst the heated discussions and the pursuit of solutions, whether it was as a delegate or as a part of the Organising Committee, I discovered the true essence of camaraderie. We stood together, united by our shared passion for change, drawing inspiration from each other's brilliance. Through laughter and tears, hours of travelling, late night talking, car rides, sleepless nights, victories and defeats, we unknowingly created beautiful memories.

Introducing my existing friends to MUN was about sharing something truly meaningful. And in doing so, I've seen how MUN has helped us in fostering creativity, improving decision-making, and inspiring us to tackle real-world problems with innovative solutions.

I urge everyone to embrace every opportunity that comes their way, to engage themselves in new experiences. Whether it's MUN, sports, arts, music, or any other endeavour, each has the power to bring you closer to your niche.

So, to those who are hesitating on the threshold of possibility, I say take the leap. For one day, when you too look back on your journey, you'll see a life rich with colour, filled with moments of joy, growth, and contribution. And in that realisation, you'll have no one else to thank but yourself for taking that leap.

DIVINE DESOLATION

Atop the castle's lofty spire, He stands, divine and grand,
His presence fills the heavens, bold and beautiful, as if by divine hand.

The starry sky, a canvas bright, with moonbeams soft and true,

And in this cosmic symphony, a white moth flits, accompanied by the cricket's gentle cue.

His gaze, a silent witness, upon the kingdom once His own,
Now lies in ruin and decay, its glory days long flown.

A silent lament echoes through the crumbling walls, a tale of grandeur lost,

In shattered stones and broken dreams, the kingdom's fate embossed

"He is great," the scriptures sing, "He is divine," they claim,
Yet in the whispers of His creation, echoes of doubt and blame.

Roses bloom with thorns concealed, a paradox of grace and strife,

Where truth and lies intertwine, a dance of love and life.

O, where is Your divine sight? Have You turned Your gaze away?

Blind to the suffering below, have You forsaken Your flock, led astray?

How contradictory, how silent You remain, as Your children cry in pain,

In the shadow of Your once-proud throne, doubts and fears reign.

Do You see the child in need, abandoned and forlorn?
Or the mother's tear-stained plea, for her lost child, torn?
Do You witness the doubts that plague our hearts, the colours of our soul?
Or the betrayal's bitter sting, as love's embrace turns cold?
Love's tender kiss transformed to curses, passion
turned to scorn,
In the labyrinth of human hearts, where love and hate are born.
Do You see it all, or have You turned a blind eye, deaf to our cries?
Have You abandoned us, left us to wander beneath these starless skies?

Your eyes, once radiant with wisdom, now veiled in sorrow's shroud,
A silent witness to the tragedy, of hopes dashed and dreams allowed.
Beneath Your darkened altar, we kneel, hearts heavy with despair,
Tears flow freely down our cheeks, as we plead for a sign,
a prayer.
Longing for a glimmer of hope, amidst the darkness deep,
Our voices rise in unison, in hymns of faith we weep.
Yet Your gaze remains unmoved, fixed upon the distant horizon's line,
A silent sentinel amidst the storm, as if lost in a trance divine

In desperation, we cry out, our voices lost in the void's abyss,
Your face a mask of sorrow, as Your silent tears we miss.
Lost in the labyrinth of Your blindness, we wander aimlessly,
Our hopes dashed upon the rocks of doubt, our dreams
lost to the sea.
In Your kingdom, shadows reign, darkness holds sway,
Despair's cold embrace envelops us, as we wander lost,
astray.
Upon Your castle's lofty heights, You stand, unmoved and alone,
A silent sentinel amidst the chaos, upon Your silent throne.

LIFE AT SECMUN CLUB AND CHANGE OF ROLES

Shubhankar Sarma
Faculty Incharge (SECMUN)

As I sit back with a pen between my finger tips to let words flow from mind to this page, I am at a loss of track of where to start and where to end this piece of writing. The Club as is already read is to foster the understanding of United Nations for active participation and prompt action in decision making and drawing on to resolutions of what concerns the global arena.

As the Club celebrates a decade long peregrination of diplomacy, peace building, resolution making and more, it has grown in every single step to reach the stage it is at today. As a former Club member and a Secretariat who had the privilege of serving in the capacity of the President for a year, this magazine is a dream come true to celebrate the past 10 years and start preparing for the future.

As I come back to the Club with a new role and responsibility, it is with excitement that I await to peruse through each page of the magazine and know the unknown about the Club and it's endless efforts of rising in its diplomatic Outreach. To have the Club the way we see it today was a matter of new learnings, unexpected challenges to meet and most importantly to work as a team despite difficulties but, it has grown promisingly over the years. SECMUN has been a place of personal and professional growth, and a space to make one familiar to draw on resolution of crisis. It has helped the masses foster their decision making skills, ability enhancement and discovering and rediscovering the leader in them. Such an academic engagement will continue to strive for excellence for all concerned. The exposure it provided me with ever since 2019 till date has left no stone unturned in making me discover the undiscovered in me alike many others in the finest way possible. SECMUN 4.0 as much is a dream project of the student Secretariat, is equally when it comes to me.

After the halt and then cancellation of SECMUN 4.0 where I was a student secretariat members that was previously scheduled for March 2020 didn't rise to reality for the global pandemic. Joining St. Edmund's College in the summer of 2023 welcomed me with an open arm to achieve the unachieved in a new position and it can never be put to words other than feeling it deep within.

As 6th May 2024 marks the release of The ED-MUN-dian Diplomacy, this piece of reading will prove as a testament of victory, challenges and opportunities the Club aligned in the manner of the United Nations fostering a consciousness over zonal, regional, national and up to global concerns through critical thinking and assessment of real life challenges faced. As we peruse through the pages of the 1st edition of 'The Ed-MUN-Dian Diplomacy', it gives me immense pleasure to learn about the efforts behind this magazine and feel honoured to be a part of the Editorial Board. Here's to Wishing SECMUN Club more achievements and success in all its future endeavors.

The Office of the Chief Electoral Officer of Meghalaya functions under the Superintendence, directions and control of Election Commission of India. The Election Commission of Meghalaya serves as the guardian of democracy, entrusted with the critical task of organizing and overseeing electoral processes to ensure fairness, transparency, and integrity. As the cornerstone of democratic governance, the commission diligently upholds the principles of free and fair elections, striving to provide equal opportunities for all eligible citizens to participate in the democratic process.

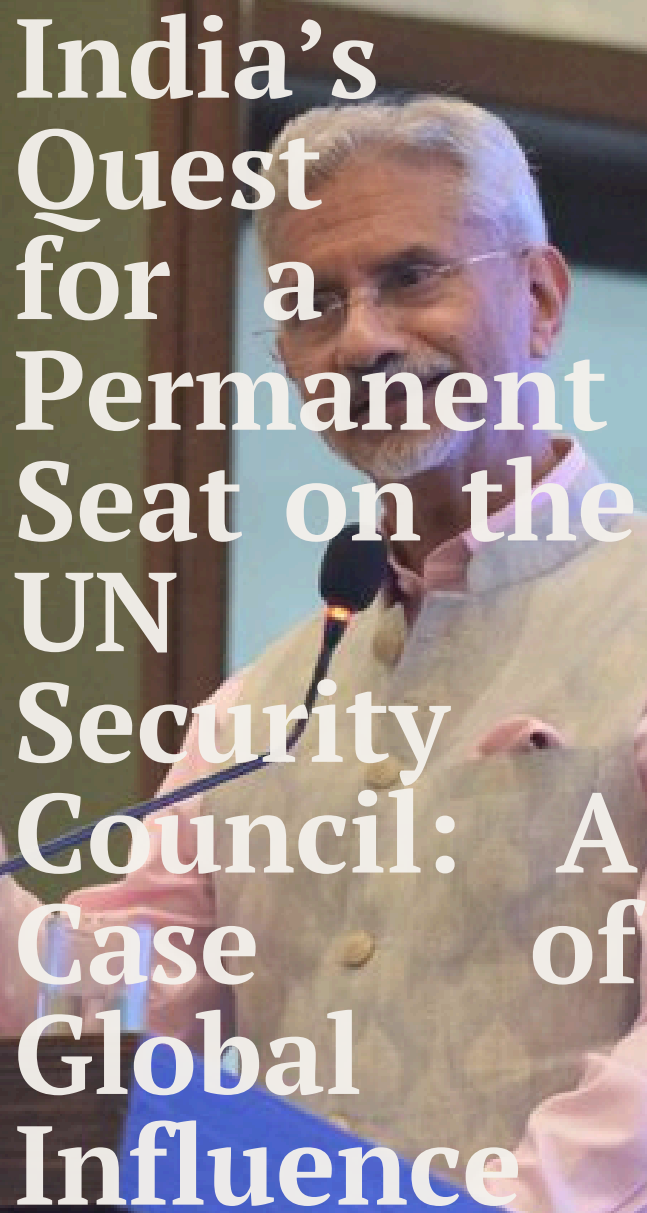

Through meticulous planning, robust enforcement of electoral laws, and impartial oversight, the Election Commission of Meghalaya fosters public trust in the electoral system, safeguarding the fundamental rights of voters and candidates alike. With a steadfast commitment to upholding democratic values, the commission stands as a beacon of democracy, guiding nations towards peaceful transitions of power and the realization of the collective will of the people. This year the Election Commission of Meghalaya with collaboration with Meghalaya Model United Nation held a Voting Awareness on the 17th April 2024 at Police Bazar, East Khasi Hills, Shillong, Meghalaya, 793001. The Meghalaya Model United Nations is an educational simulation of the United Nations which aims to enable students to become more engaged in and knowledgeable of international political issues and the UN while developing their communication, deliberation, leadership, and debate skills.

The St. Edmunds College Model United Nations (SECMUN) club participated with great enthusiasm in the event, which aimed to educate attendees on the significance of voting and encourage participation in the electoral process. Voting is not just a civic duty; it's an opportunity to shape the future you want to see. Every ballot cast is a voice heard, a choice made, and a step towards building a better society. Your vote is your power to influence policies, elect leaders who reflect your values, and champion causes close to your heart. Each mark on the ballot paper is a symbol of hope, progress, and positive change. So, let your voice be heard, let your vote count, and let your actions shape the course of history. Your participation in the democratic process isn't just about you; it's about the generations to come and the world they will inherit. Be inspired to make a difference, inspire others to do the same, and together, let's create a brighter future through the simple act of voting.

India's Quest for a Permanent Seat on the UN Security Council: A Case of Global Influence

In the ever-evolving landscape of international diplomacy, India stands as a beacon of progress and potential. With its burgeoning economy, diverse population, and steadfast commitment to peacekeeping efforts, India has emerged as a prominent player on the world stage. Yet, despite its undeniable contributions to global stability, India finds itself on the outside looking in when it comes to one of the most crucial bodies in international affairs: the United Nations Security Council (UNSC).

Established in 1945, the United Nations Security Council (UNSC) is one of the five principal organs of the United Nations, charged with the maintenance of international peace and security as well as accepting new members to the United Nations and approving any changes to UN Charter.

Functions and powers of United Nations Security Council:

- The most important function of the UNSC is maintaining peace and security at the international level.
- Apart from maintaining peace, the Security Council can also deploy UN peacekeeping operations and impose sanctions on states.
- The UNSC can also impose diplomatic relations severance, financial restrictions and penalties, blockades and even collective military action if required.

UNSC Members

There are permanent and non-permanent members of the UNSC.

- A total of 15 members are there in the council, out of which 5 are permanent and 10 are not permanent.
- The five permanent members include China, France, the Russia, the United Kingdom, and the United States of America.
- The 10 non-permanent members are Albania, Brazil, Gabon, Ghana, India, Ireland, Kenya, Mexico, Norway and United Arab Emirates. The non-permanent members are elected for two-year terms by the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA)

The most important power or I rather say the director power is the VETO. So, basically the meaning of VETO is “Latin of ‘I Forbid’”.

Let us take a hypothetical example to understand what VETO really is:

Due to the extreme human rights violation Uyghur Muslim population USA drafts a resolution for an enquiry in this matter. Now to adopt a draft resolution, none of the permanent members should VETO it and 9 non-permanent members should vote in favor. So just in case all the 10 non-permanent members vote in favor and the 4 permanent members also does not VETO the resolution, do you think that China will VETO or Not. Absolutely they will VETO the draft resolution, now that's how democratic the UNSC is!

This VETO power is used by all the permanent members-

- China and Russia have VETOed four draft resolutions on Syria since 2019.
- The U.S has used its VETO right 42 times for Israel since 1972
- Palestine has not become a UN member, as full membership requires UNSC approval.
- China blocks Taiwan's UN membership, not recognizing Taiwan as a sovereign country
- And recently China and Russia VETO a draft resolution filed by US for complete ceasefire on Israel-Hamas War.

No representation from Africa, South America

As such the UNSC has no representation from the continents like Africa, South America and Australia and very less representation from Asia. Now we have to ask a simple question do these five countries use their VETO powers in the interest of the world or their national interest.

Road Blocks in India's bid for Permanent Membership:

- It is argued by critics that Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT) and also refused to sign the Comprehensive Nuclear Test-Ban Treaty in 1996.
- China, which has VETO power in the UNSC, has been stonewalling India's efforts to become a permanent member.

Now the question arises why not India if not India?

- India sends the largest deployment as UN peacekeeping force which comes under UNSC.
- We are and will always be the largest democracy in the world.
- We are the country with the greatest number of people 1.41 billion or 17.76% of world population.
- We are the fifth largest economy in the world. India have been always in the forefront in helping our neighbours and the world as such. With sending vaccines, operation Dost and all.

“Well finally getting into UNSC is a big deal and since it's a big deal its not easy to get in, and the world is not very generous...” - S Jaishankar

Whispers of Unity

In a world torn by strife and despair,
We dream of a place where compassion is rare.
Let's join hands, my friend, and take a stand,
For world peace, let's lend a helping hand.
In the darkest of nights, let hope be our light,
Guiding us towards a future so bright.
With empathy as our compass, we'll navigate,
Through the challenges we face, we won't hesitate.
Let's paint the sky with colors of unity,
Embracing our differences with love and humility.
For in diversity lies our strength,
A tapestry of cultures, a harmonious blend.
Imagine a world where conflicts cease,
Where understanding and respect increase.
With open minds and hearts so pure,
Together, we'll find a lasting cure.
Let's build bridges of peace, not walls of hate,
For kindness and compassion, it's never too late.
In every act of love, a ripple will spread,
Touching lives, mending hearts, breaking down what's misread.
So let's strive for peace, my dear friend,
For a world where war and suffering will end.
Hand in hand, we'll make a change,
Spreading peace and love, in a world so strange.

Echoes Of Peace

In the hush of twilight's gentle glow,
Where whispers of peace softly flow,
In the realm where oceans meet, and skies embrace,
A whispered dream of harmony takes its place.
From distant shores to mountains tall,
Echoes of tranquillity softly call.
From every corner of the earth's embrace,
Rises a chorus, a call for grace.
No language barriers, no walls to bind,
In the tapestry of peace, all hearts entwined.
No borders drawn, no barriers to divide,
In the tapestry of peace, all souls reside.
May every heart, every voice, every hand,
Join in the chorus of peace, across the land.
For in the embrace of understanding and love's release,
The world finds solace in the arms of peace.
For in the beauty of our unity,
Lies the promise of eternity.
May every soul, in every land,
Join in the dance, hand in hand.
For in the dance of light and shadows' cease,
We find the eternal beauty of global peace.

THE STATE OF SORROW

Blood and tears on ancient sands,
Where hope fades 'neath fear's demands.
In shadows of relentless strife,
Yearning for the dawn of life.

Gaza's streets echo with despair,
Rockets rend the silent air.
In Israel's heart, tension thrives,
As citizens face uncertain lives.

Yet amid the turmoil, unseen,
A child's eyes hold dreams serene.
Soldiers stand on streets of old,
Whispers of martyrs, stories untold.

Yet, in the depths of strife's cruel hold,
Resilience shines, a tale untold.
Amidst chaos, voices yearn for peace,
Beneath the skies where conflicts cease.

Blood and tears on ancient lands,
But courage grasps compassionate hands.
For in the midst of strife and pain,
Love's beacon shines, our hearts remain.

JOURNALISM is the heart of DEMOCRACY

journalism serves as the lifeblood of democracy, nourishing its values of transparency, accountability, dialogue, and empowerment. Without a free and independent press, democracy cannot thrive, as it relies on the dissemination of accurate information, robust debate, and civic engagement to flourish. Journalism serves as a watchdog, holding those in power accountable for their actions and decisions. Investigative reporting uncovers corruption, abuse of power, and other malpractices, shining a light on issues that might otherwise remain hidden. By exposing wrongdoing and promoting transparency, journalism helps maintain the checks and balances necessary for a healthy democracy.

Journalism empowers individuals and communities by giving them a voice and a platform to share their stories and advocate for change. Investigative journalism into social injustices, economic disparities, and environmental issues can mobilize public opinion and catalyse social movements aimed at addressing these challenges. By amplifying marginalized voices and championing social causes, journalism contributes to a more inclusive and participatory democracy. Journalism plays a crucial role in safeguarding democratic rights, including freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and the right to information. Journalists often risk their lives to report on human rights abuses, threats to democracy, and violations of civil liberties. By upholding these rights and exposing infringements upon them, journalism helps protect the very foundations of democracy.

Journalism provides citizens with the information they need to make informed decisions. Through newspapers, websites, TV broadcast, and social media, journalists report on events, analyze issues, and present diverse perspectives. Informed citizens are essential for a democracy to function effectively, as they can participate meaningfully in elections, hold elected officials accountable, and advocate policies that reflect their interests and values.

One notable Indian journalist is Ravish Kumar. He is widely recognized for his work as a senior executive editor and prime-time anchor of NDTV India, one of India's leading news channels. Ravish Kumar is known for his incisive analysis, fearless reporting, and commitment to addressing critical social and political issues. Kumar's reporting often focuses on issues affecting marginalized communities, government accountability, and the state of Indian democracy. He has received several prestigious illustrations for his journalism, including the Ramon Magsaysay Award for Journalism, Literature, and Creative Communication Arts, often referred to as Asia's Noble Prize. Ravish Kumar's dedication to ethical journalism, his willingness to question authority, and his efforts to amplify the voices of the disenfranchised have earned him widespread respect and admiration both within India and internationally. He serves as an inspiring example of journalistic integrity and courage in the Indian media landscape.

Freedom of the press is a fundamental democratic principle. Journalists play a crucial role in upholding this freedom by reporting without fear of censorship or reprisal. By defending the right to free speech and expression, journalists help safeguard individual liberties and prevent the concentration of power in the hands of a few. Through investigative reporting and advocacy journalism, journalism empowers citizens by giving them the knowledge and tools they need to participate actively in society. By raising awareness about social injustices, advocating for change, and amplifying marginalized voices, journalists inspire individuals to become agents of positive change in their communities.

.Journalism is essential for democracy because it provides citizens with the information they need to make informed decisions, holds those in power accountable through investigative reporting, fosters public discourse and debate by presenting diverse viewpoints, defends the freedom of the press, and empowers citizens by raising awareness about social issues and advocating for change.

“Nothing like Voting, Vote for sure.”

Discovering the democratic process of voting in Meghalaya: the youths took the initiative to learn about elections, voter registration, and the power of one vote. When young people are franchised or engaged in political processes, it provides a platform for individuals to voice their thoughts and opinions on voting and their rights. On the 13th April, 2024 St. Edmunds College Model United Nation (SECMUN), in collaboration with Meghalaya Model United Nations (MMUN) organised an Open Mic event which was also coordinated with the Office of Chief Election Commission, East Khasi Hills District. The SECMUN Club with the JGA Cultural Team of St. Edmund's College hosted the event.

Originally the event was hosted by the Regional Director of Jaintia Hills and Ri Bhoi region MMUN, Ma'am Ibararishisha Syiem and the Director of Finance MMUN, Sir. Eddy Ripnar together with the guest of the day Ma'am. Anendya Raajsshree, IAS and Assistant Commissioner, East Khasi Hills District and Nodal Officer SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation). The motto of the annual day is to encourage students to participate in the upcoming elections which are to be held on the 19th April 2024.

As it was inspired by Ma'am Anendya Raajsshree that “elections are the festivals of democracy and it is the biggest right anyone can exercise.” The right to vote have been given to us by the Constitution of India, in order to have a voice in the biggest democracy in the world. That being said, she also encouraged the youths to exercise

Sr. Eddy Ripnar, Director of Finance summarised the purpose of the event which is to spread awareness on the criteria introduced by the Election Commission of various technologies in voting. As he mentioned that in Meghalaya the vote turn out is comparatively less than other states, however the awareness program would encourage individuals to exercise their vote and to raise a voice through voting as it is one of the foundation of the nation.

Several performances were featured by the students of St. Edmund's College as well as members from Meghalaya Model United Nation who promoted the when, how, and why of voting. Mellberg Shangdiar kicked off the event with a song performance and mesmerized the crowd with his wonderful composition. The very gifted dancer Lurshailang Lyngdoh Mawplang also graced the occasion, stunning the audience with his infectious energy and skills. Our very own entertainer, Yoshepha Lyndem amused everyone with her original Khasi Phawar with a message of the importance of voting.

Emily Grael Jyrwa, President of the college music society added even more elegance to the occasion by captivating everyone with her vocal strains and notes. The current leader of the appreciation in everyone. In addition, the band Cheeky Chorister played a song. They even got the throng to join in on the song. Followed by a dance performance by Rebecca and her partner who were two of the exceptional dancers. People envied them for the way they moved. A duet performance by Mrinmoyee and Shayonika was also included. Their calming voice truly enthralled the audience.

A series of the quizzing hosted by Naphibansabet Byrsat and Riwaka Pyrbot Tangsong helped in brainstorming ideas and improved the knowledge of voting. Such questions were to derive the abbreviation of EPIC (Elector's Photo Identity Card) and VVPAT (Voters Verifiable Paper Audit Trial) and so on. Some winners bagged a back to back win and it gave the students the confidence to continue on with the quiz. The performances ended with an inspirational speech by Da-aibiang Marngar from the History department, expressing his views on the significance of voting and selecting a leader based on their actual qualifications rather than just their catchy music. The vote of thanks was delivered by Bartley Noel Dkhar.

We were given a wealth of voting-related information and learned that voting is crucial. Enabling citizens to voice their choices for who and how they are governed is a fundamental component of democratic governance. Voting allows people to hold their leaders responsible, shape public policies and decisions that impact their lives, and contribute to the future development of their town, state, and nation. On top of that, it guarantees that the chosen government represents the will of the people and upholds its legitimacy. Voting is therefore a vital civic duty as well as a right.

All in all, the event was a success. In fact, it gave individuals the motivation to utilize their right to vote and not throw it away in favour of shaping the nation's future. Once again, St. Edmund's College Model United Nation club successfully acted as a change agent by assisting and collaborating with the event organizers into making the occasion worthwhile

MODEL UNITED NATIONS (MUN) IN DIPLOMATIC CONDUCT AND DECORUM

Model United Nations (MUN) is a simulation that replicates the actual proceedings and committees of the United Nations. It serves as an educational platform where students can gain knowledge about diplomacy, international relations, and the current agenda of the United Nations, enabling them to grasp the complexities of world issues and politics.

Through MUN, participants assume the roles of diplomats representing different countries and engage in debates, negotiations, and resolutions akin to real diplomats. This immersive experience exposes participants to a diverse range of international issues and allows them to comprehend the perspectives of various nations, thereby fostering empathy, critical thinking, and a deeper understanding of global affairs.

Furthermore, MUN aids in the refinement of diplomatic skills such as public speaking, negotiation, compromise, consensus-building, and conflict resolution. Participants learn to express their viewpoints eloquently, defend their country's positions, and collaborate towards finding common solutions. By interacting with peers from diverse backgrounds, MUN also promotes cultural sensitivity, tolerance, and the ability to effectively cooperate in multicultural settings - vital attributes for diplomatic engagement. Moreover, MUN encourages thorough research on assigned topics, countries' stances, and global policies, thus enhancing participants' analytical skills, information gathering and synthesis abilities, and comprehension of policy-making processes.

Professionalism, etiquette, and respect for diplomatic norms are emphasized in MUN, guiding participants on how to conduct themselves in formal settings, adhere to diplomatic protocols, and engage in civil discourse even during contentious debates. Additionally, MUN provides valuable opportunities for networking with peers, mentors, and experts in the field of international relations. These connections can potentially lead to collaborations, mentorship, and future career prospects in diplomacy, politics, academia, or related fields.

All in all, MUN acts as a training ground for aspiring diplomats and global leaders by fostering diplomatic conduct, promoting decorum, and equipping participants with the necessary skills for success in this realm.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION 2024

Ankit Bhattarai
(President SECMUN Club 2023-24)

The General Election conducted by the St. Edmunds College Model United Nations (SECMUN) Club on 26th March 2024 aimed to elect suitable candidates for the positions of President, Secretary, and Assistant Secretary. The election process was meticulously organized to ensure fairness and transparency.

For the positions of President and Secretary, only 4th and 6th-semester students were eligible to register as candidates. This ensured that candidates had sufficient experience and maturity to handle the responsibilities associated with these roles.

For the position of Assistant Secretary, recognizing the academic commitments of 1st-semester students who were on study leave preparing for upcoming exams, a special provision was made for online voting. This decision allowed 1st-semester students to participate in the election process without disrupting their study schedules.

On the day of the election, the AV Room 1 served as the designated venue. The election proceedings were conducted in an orderly manner, with the opening speech by Sanskriti Modgal one of the active secretariat member of the club after which each candidate had to say a short speech on why they should be elected for the post they've applied for. The electorate voted through a secret ballot.

For 1st-semester students who were unable to physically attend the election due to study leave, an online voting system was implemented. This allowed them to participate in the election process conveniently, ensuring their voices were heard despite their academic commitments. After the conclusion of the voting process, ballots were counted, and the results were announced promptly. The SECMUN Club ensured transparency and integrity throughout the counting process to maintain the credibility of the election outcomes.

As from above the new Office Bearers of SECMUN(2024-25) is:

1. Bhushan Kalita – President
2. Vivian Alexander – Secretary
3. Naphibansabet Byrsat – Assistant Secretary

The General Election conducted by the St. Edmunds College Model United Nations (SECMUN) Club on 26th March 2024 was a testament to the commitment to democracy and student participation. The structured approach, inclusive measures, and adherence to fairness ensured that the election process was conducted smoothly and effectively. The elected candidates are now poised to serve their roles diligently, representing the interests of the student body and upholding the values of the SECMUN Club.

The opening ceremony of SACMUN 2024 started off with a welcoming and refreshing speech by Jennifer R Marak, the Joint Head of Public Delegate Affairs. This was followed by a special prayer by Gabriela, enlightening the room with God's presence. After a small but meaningful prayer, Professor Kharlukhi was called upon to the stage, to deliver the welcoming address. After this, Julian Thabah, the Joint Head of Finance along with another member of the organising committee distributed gravels to the respected and honourable chairpersons of each committee respectively. After the distribution, the Principal of St.Anthony's college was called upon to deliver a speech. His speech was full of passion and enthusiasm as he voiced his support of the youth for making a positive change for themselves and the world around them. Simultaneously, the UNSC convened to address matters of Israel-Hamas war with delegates scrutinizing potential resolutions and diplomatic initiatives to mitigate conflicts and promote stability on the global stage. Similarly, in the League of Nations committee, historical perspectives intertwined with contemporary challenges as delegates grappled with issues on crafting blueprint for economic resurgence post WW1. Despite the deliberate pace of proceedings, the first day of the conference laid a solid foundation for substantive dialogue and collaboration, setting the stage for deeper engagement and meaningful outcomes in the days to come. Delegates exhibited a commitment to diplomacy and consensus building, demonstrating their dedication to finding constructive solutions to the world's most pressing issues within the framework of the Model UN simulation. Following the committee's dispersal, the social gathering blossomed with vibrant music and spirited dancing, infusing energy into everyone's spirits.

Nothing could set us up for what the second day had brought upon us. It was the culmination of brilliant arguments and heated discussions which led to some of the best moments of the entire conference. In each committee, the delegates brought solutions that they felt were best suited to combat pressing issues for their respective agenda, which at the end of day was passed by a majority stake. # THE STRAIGHT LINE: INSIGHTS FROM MY FIRST MUN CONFERENCE

Naphibansabet Byrsat
Department of Sociology, 2nd Semester

My journey to the Model United Nations (MUN) was a serendipitous one. After the discontinuation of the National Cadet Corps (NCC) at our school, I found myself drawn to MUN as a new and intriguing alternative. It was not just a chance to explore global diplomacy but also a leap into something entirely new for me. I was among the first in my school to join this fledgling club, spurred on by presentations from the MUN association which ignited my curiosity about international relations. The decision to join MUN was accompanied by a mix of excitement and apprehension. I was presented with an exciting opportunity to participate in my very first conference, hosted by the North East India International Model United Nations (NEIMUN), 2019. This significant event was scheduled to take place in Sikkim. As someone new to the Model United Nations scene, the prospect of attending this conference promised not only a chance to learn about global issues and international relations firsthand but also to develop critical skills in public speaking, negotiation, and policy-making. Representing my school, St. Margaret's Higher Secondary School, it was just me and a classmate amidst a sea of college and university students—an intimidating anticipation for a high schooler.

My introduction to MUN involved hurried shopping trips to prepare for the conference, from buying formals to selecting the perfect trolley bag for the chilly Sikkim weather in October. Traveling to Sikkim was an adventure in itself. The journey involved multiple changes from buses to trains and cars, each transition a frantic rush due to my oversized and overpacked luggage. Thankfully, the kindness of strangers shone through when a few gentlemen from St. Edmund's college, assisted with my cumbersome bag, easing my travel woes slightly. The most memorable moment came as we reached Sikkim around midnight on October 24th—coincidentally, my 16th birthday. The spontaneous celebration by fellow travelers marked my birthday in an unprecedented way, singing in a car far from home, offering a moment of joy amidst the stress of new experiences and unfamiliar faces.

The first day of the MUN conference marked a significant turning point for me. Assigned to the World Health Organization (WHO) committee, I found myself right where I wanted to be. Having always been drawn to roles where I could contribute to meaningful change, this was my chance to step into such a capacity. The environment was energizing, filled with like-minded individuals passionate about global issues and ready to tackle complex challenges.

Stepping into the bustling conference room as the youngest delegate, my heart was a mix of nervous excitement and anticipation. Representing the Central African Republic in the WHO committee, I was tasked with addressing the pressing issue of access to medicine in developing countries—a daunting yet thrilling challenge for my inaugural MUN experience. The first day was an immersion into the unknown. With no prior understanding of how committee sessions functioned, I was fortunate to have the Executive Board (EB) and other delegates guide me through the proceedings. Their kindness and willingness to help were beyond what I could have hoped for, setting a warm and encouraging tone for the rest of the conference. Over the next three days, the atmosphere was one of camaraderie and mutual support. Seasoned delegates and first-timers alike reached out to help me navigate the complex discussions, encouraging me to share my thoughts. Although more of an observer, I took the opportunity to deliver a speech, which, to my delight, was later featured in the conference magazine as "empowering." This recognition was a significant boost, affirming my research skills and ability to articulate complex issues effectively.

The social events were equally memorable. Each evening brought delegates together in a more relaxed setting, ranging from a culturally themed gathering and a cozy pajama party to an exhilarating prom night. The pajama party stood out as particularly special; it was not just fun but also an emotional bonding experience with peers who had quickly become friends. These socials were a perfect complement to the day's debates, allowing us to unwind and forge deeper connections.

As the conference in Sikkim concluded, I felt a pang of sadness mixed with a sense of accomplishment. Though I did not receive any awards, the words of encouragement from the EB and fellow delegates were invaluable. One EB member's remark that he saw the brightest future ahead for me will stay with me forever, reinforcing my resolve to pursue a career at the United Nations.

Joining the MUN was a foray into the unknown, driven by the absence of familiar options at school. It was a blend of nervous first steps and serendipitous moments, like celebrating a birthday in transit. Each phase of this journey, from the chaotic travels to unexpected birthday cheers, taught me about resilience, adaptability, and the unexpected friendships that can arise in new environments. This wasn't just about gaining new skills; it was about growing as a person. I found myself stepping into others' shoes, seeing the world through their eyes, and that changed me. It made me realize that I could be a force for good, by simply understanding and respecting different perspectives. It was a spiritual awakening in a way, showing me how interconnected we all are and how my actions can influence and uplift others.

Today, as a college student and a secretariat member of the St. Edmund's College MUN club, I reflect on how that first MUN conference was a turning point. It was there that I realized my potential to contribute meaningfully to global discussions, despite my initial self-doubt and introversion. With every new MUN experience, I am honing my public speaking skills and overcoming my stage fright, steadfast in my dream to work for the UN. Looking back, I am immensely grateful for the MUN platform provided by NEIMUN in my school years—it was more than just a conference; it was the beginning of a journey towards greater confidence and clarity about my professional aspirations. As I continue to grow and learn, I am hopeful and excited about what the future holds.
