

OBITUARY

The Management, Staff, students and alumni of St. Edmund's College were deeply shocked at the news of the passing away of Prof. D. L. Warjri on 28th October, 2021.

Prof. D. L. Warjri joined St. Edmund's College in the Khasi Department on 1st March, 1966 and retired on 31st August, 1997. As the Head of Khasi Department he took the initiative and convinced the Management to start Honours in Khasi. Under the banner of "Ka Lympung ki Khasi", he took a leading role in organising seminars and workshops which benefitted the students of the College and other Colleges. He was a man who loved reading and encouraged students to read and discover for themselves. He was a leader who led from the front; discipline and punctuality were of utmost importance to him and he ensured that other maintained it as well. He loved St. Edmund's College and the Khasi Department and was always available when invited to any function in the College.

We mourn his passing away and recall with gratitude his contributions to the students and the College. We offer our condolences to the family and assure them of our prayers. May the departed soul rest in peace.
