It calls for the mention of the revolutionary change of some students' with some motive in mind to bring up the leadership quality, to bring up the diplomatic conception of each of the member and to motivate and teach people regarding the geopolitical variations and areas that call for global participation and engagement. The formation of the Club dates back to the backdrop of the North East India Model United Nations (NEIMUN) Conference held at Shillong in the year 2014. The primary objective of the Club then was to spread awareness about MUN to the students of the College, as well as nurture aspiring participants and encourage them to participate in MUN events held in the North Eastern region.

After detailed discussion and conversion, the Club came up with it's first Conference, SECMUN 1.0 in 2016 during the College month, EDBLAZON 2016. The successive editions of the Conference took place with no stop as SECMUN 2.0 and SECMUN 3.0 in the year 2017 and 2018 respectively. The 4th edition of The Conference was planned with sheer dedication and enthusiasm by the then Secretariat however had to be initially postponed and later had to be cancelled due to global SARS Cov-2 pandemic. St.Edmund's College Model United Nations (SECMUN), with great enthusiasm presents you with it's 4th edition of the conference held in the current year 2024!

It has held it's previous editions in the years: 2016, 2017 and 2018.

This time around, SECMUN 4.0, will have five (5) committees in total namely; All India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM), Disarmament and International Security (DISEC), United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW), United Nations Human Rights Council (UNHRC), and a committee that is divided into two, United Nations Correspondents Association (Journalism) and United Nations Correspondents Association (Photo Journalism). It will most definitely have diversed executive board members coming from different corners of the country who are experienced and also well versed with the entire diplomatic procedure. Its strongest anticipation though, is no doubt for the delegates from across the length and breath of the country as their participation and support by joining the previous editions truly motivated the SECMUN team to deliver its best once again in this edition's upcoming conference.

This year, the conference will be held for two days, dated: The 6th of May and the 7th of May, 2024. On the first day, a carnival will be held which will bring about the cultural richness in food stalls with a variety of cuisines, stalls that will exhibit fine art and crafts, dance and music and altogether moments of fun and enjoyment for fellow delegates to remember and look forward to in future conferences.
