

APOT Film Screening and Ka Rynsan Magazine Unveiling

The Department of Khasi, St. Edmund's College on the 19th May 2023 organised a screening of the Khasi Film "APOT" and released the Department Magazine entitled "Ka Rynsan" Vol-VIII. The Magazine was released by the Chief Guest, Br. (Dr.) Simon Coelho, the Principal i/c of the college.

Br. Simon in his brief speech, while releasing the magazine “Ka Rynsan” appreciated the Department of Khasi that such extra-curricular activities will cultivate positive development for the enhancement of the academic career of the students.

Coming to the film, it was produced and directed by Bah Raphael Warjri. The film is based on the folktale as put down by Rabon Sing Kharsuka. The content of the film is an independent expression of the scriptwriter while the story was retained without changes. The film is based on the folklore “Ka Tiewlarun” (a particular flower that grows in Khasi Hills). The places where this flower blossoms are known to be a favourite haunt of snakes. “A Presage of Tiewlarun”, the film, was presented to the audience in a 30 minute clip that gives a highlight of the story.

The programme was attended by Padmashree Patricia Mukhim, editor of Shillong Times cum journalist, Prof. A. Kharmalki, Department of Khasi, NEHU, Bah Rudi V. Warjri, Former Indian Foreign Service, Bah Synranki Najiar and Kong Darihun Marbaniang, cast and crew of the film, Bah Raphael Warjri, Producer and Director of the film. Faculty members and students of the Department of Khasi, SEC.

There was an interaction after the screening which served as feedback for the upliftment of the film's quality. The screening of the film was a real success as the audience expressed their enthusiasm and gratitude for holding such an event.

