

WEBINAR ON
THE NON- ALIGNMENT MOVEMENT (NAM)

The Department of History, St. Edmund's College organized a webinar on the topic entitled "The Non- Alignment Movement," on the 12th of March 2021. The resource person of the said webinar was Prof. Abhijit Chowdhury, retired HOD, department of History, St. Edmund's College, Shillong. The program was hosted by Prof. Ricky Basaiawmoit, faculty, department of History. The webinar started with a welcome address by Prof. Darilin Suting, Head of the Department. The platform for the said webinar was via zoom platform and it was attended by the students of the fifth semester, history honours. The entire lecture and session of the webinar was recorded by the Dr. Dianghunmon Rynjah.

The topic of the said webinar was conducted as part of the syllabus of Paper VI of the fifth semester students. The Non- Alignment Movement is a very important development that surfaced the international relations after the second world war. It was founded in 1961 with the aim to protect the nascent freedom of the new born independent countries of Asia and Africa from colonial domination. To advocate sovereign equality of all states and to encourage friendly relations among countries. In this regards, Prof. Abhijit, stressed on the importance of the NAM in international relations and its role in achieving international peace and security.

The webinar concluded with a discussion between the students and the resource person, where both parties were involved in a serious discussions and debates on the topic. The program ended with the vote of thanks that was offered by Dr. Dianghunmon Rynjah, faculty, department of history. The entire department has work tirelessly and each faculty members have contributed in their own capacity towards the successful conclusion of the webinar.

PHOTOS OF THE WEBINAR:

The following are the pictures that was taken during the webinar conducted on 12.03.2021.

