

A programme was held by the Dept. of Political Science on 31st March 2023, on the title “Regional Inequality in NorthEast India”

The resource person for the programme was Prof. Benjamin L Saitluanga. is from the Department of Geography & Resource Management, Mizoram University.

Despite being from a different discipline, Prof. Benjamin had shown how the two disciplines have a lot of overlap and how ethnicity and ethno-regionalism have an impact on regional politics.

The programme ended with a lively interaction between the resource person and the audience.
