

Report Science Mela (EdScientia) – 2021

Organized by St. Edmund's College Science Club in collaboration with IQAC, St. Edmund's College

Central Theme: "Innovate Today for a Better Tomorrow"

The St. Edmund's College Science Mela, popularly known as "EdScientia" was held on the 10th & 11th December, 2021 in the college premises in an offline mode, under controlled environment, taking care of the COVID guidelines with proper social distancing, wearing of masks at all times and hand sanitization.

The annual event was sponsored by the Department of Biotechnology, Ministry of Science & Technology, Government of India, New Delhi, under the DBT-STAR College Scheme. The event was organized and conducted in a successful manner with active participation of the students and teachers, and with tremendous support from the college management.

The two-day event was filled with various activities which were as follows: -

1. Inter-Departmental Science Exhibition (Models & Charts Exhibits)
2. Inter-Departmental Photography Competition
3. Inter-Departmental Arts Competition (Painting & Sketching)
4. Inter-Departmental Debate Competition
5. Inter-Departmental Science Seminar Competition
6. SEC Science Club Logo & Motto Competition

Former teachers from the college were invited as "Special Guests" to chair upon all the activities of the Science Mela and to also judge on the performances of the students in their various activities.

The invited special guests during the inaugural programme were: -

1. Prof. Wandel Passah, Former Head & Professor, Department of Electronics, St. Edmund's College
2. Dr. Abhijit Debroy, Former Head & Professor, Department of Biochemistry, St. Edmund's College

The invited special guest during the valedictory programme was: -

1. Dr. Sujit Nandy Mazumdar, Former Professor, Department of Chemistry, St. Edmund's College

The details of students and teachers who have actively participated in the various activities during the Science Mela are given in the succeeding pages of this report, along with a few selected pictures covering the event.
