Volleyball game is a team sport. The most important virtue of this game is coordination, trust and communication among the teammates. During the matches the team spirit could be seen. Some matches were neck to neck but still the players didn't lose the chance to enjoy their matches. Supporters of each team could be heard with their cheers for boosting the players on the field. Along with the fun while playing the game all the rules were followed as a major part of sportsmanship. All the volunteers were helpful and easy going. This helped the matches to run smoothly. Through out the entire matches a healthy sportsmanship was maintained.

The whole event gave us an opportunity to learn, meet and make new connections and instilled not only the understanding of the game but also the importance of teamwork and being able to enjoy in extracurricular activities to loosen up and fresh our minds.
