7. Brief Report

The Antakshari event organised as a part of Edblazon 2023, is a very popular one where an active enthusiasm towards participation can be noticed amongst the students community of St. Edmund's College. The programme started at 12:45 pm and ended around 3:30 pm. It was for the first time, the programme was conducted in an open arena concept.

The entire event was divided into two parts namely: Prelims and Mains

In Prelims, there were, 3 rounds each with different markings namely-

- General Antakshari With 10 points,
- Word round with 10 points
- Audio round with 10 points.

In the Mains there were a total of 5 rounds each with different markings namely-

- General Antakshari with 10 points,
- Word round with 10 points,
- Antra- mukhra with 20 points
- Dumb Charade with 15 points.
- Guess the song round (Buzzer) with the 10 points.

The entire event was hosted by PradiKshina Borbora from B.A fourth Semester (Geography Department) and Ridabiang Sungoh from B.A fourth Semester (Sociology Department).

Initially, there were 8 participating teams, out of which 5 teams qualified for final. Each of the teams comprised of a team leader.

After completing all the rounds, the winner of the Antakshari were Bhargov kumar Sarmah (Leader), Prasasti Sarma, Bhushan kalita, Trideep das.

The runners up were Prajyalita dey (leader), Ritika dey, Baishali Gupta, Baishali Deb and the third place holders were Piyush paul (leader), Sanjana Rani, Shyonika Das, Mrinmoyee Chakraborty.

The event ended with a playful round of antakshari between teachers, volunteers and animators. The volunteers and animators did an excellent job of making the event a successful one and making it enjoyable for all.
