Volleyball is a team sport. This game requires trust, coordination and communication among the players. This event gave an opportunity to witness great team spirit, new bonds and friendships, a sense of thrill and many more. Some matches were tough and neck to neck, still the players made sure to never give up and enjoy. There were supporters who came to support their friends and department which was something very memorable. Along with the fun and enjoyment, the rules of the game were followed as a major part of good sportsmanship. All the volunteers heled in making sure that the game ran smoothly and easily. A healthy sportsmanship was maintained throughout.

The whole event was a success. It not only gave an opportunity of playing the game but also gave new knowledge, experiences and the importance of teamwork. It helped the students to enjoy extracurricular activities that the college provides and loosen up to refresh their minds.
