Celebration of "International Day of Women and Girls in Science" Report

The "International Day of Women and Girls in Science" was celebrated on the 11th February, 2023 by the Science Club at the college auditorium. It was celebrated by organizing a student seminar on the achievements of women scientists in different fields of science. The seminar was successfully conducted with the active participation of eleven student presenters from different science departments. Eighty-nine students attended the programme along with teachers from different science departments. The women scientists whose achievements were portrayed by the student presenters were: -

- Dr. Marie Curie, Polish-French Physicist and Chemist
- Dr. Sanghamitra Bandyopadhyay, Indian Computer Scientist
- Dr. Janaki Ammal, Indian Botanist
- Dr. Mary Lucy Cartwright, British Mathematician
- Dr. Sophie Germain, French Mathematician
- Dr. Shakuntala Devi, Indian Mathematician
- Dr. Maryam Mirzakhani, Iranian Mathematician
- Dr. Grace Brewster Hopper, American Computer Scientist
- Dr. Bibha Chowdhuri, Indian Physicist
- Dr. Barbara Liscov, American Computer Scientist
- Dr. Kiran Mazumdar Shaw, Indian Biotechnologist
- Dr. Laurie Marker, American Zoologist
- Dr. Rosalind Elsie Franklin, British Chemist

- The respondents wanted to continue this programme every year.
- Take away message
 - The programme was motivational and depicted women self-empowerment in science research.
 - If women make up their minds, they can achieve great height too.
 - It was inspiring to learn about many women scientists and their achievements.
 - Women could also be as good as men and gender isn't a barrier.
- Suggestions for improvement
 - Fun Quiz round should be included.
 - Put more extra-curricular activities.
 - Should inform early so that participants can get enough time to prepare.
