7.	Brief Report	The event had a total of 9 groups, each with 4 members. The first 4 groups played the prelims round. In the prelims the first round was the general antakshari round where the host sang a song and the last "Akshar" of the song was the song of the 1st group and it continued. This round was repeated twice, for this round 10 points was given. The second round of the prelims was the word round where a word was written on a chit and the group had to sing as many songs as possible with that word. For each correct song they sing correctly 10 points were given per song and two mins time was given for guessing the song. This round was also repeated twice and they had to sing the entire mukhra of each song. The last round of prelims was the audio round where the groups had to guess the song and sing after listening the prelude, this round was done with the help of Placards raising after each audio played for the work of guessing the song and sing. There were negative markings in the round. The time limit was 10 sec for correctly guessing they got +10 and for wrong guess, they got -5. After those three rounds, 3 groups were chosen from the first 4 groups for mains. Similarly, the next 5 groups played the prelims with the same rules and round. Again 3 groups were chosen for the mains. The mains had a total of 6 groups. Six rounds were played for mains. The first round was again the general antakshari round which had similar rules as prelims. The second round of mains was the Dumb Charades round, where one member of each group came forward and picked a chit and acted on the movie name written on it. The groups had to guess the name of the movie within 2 mins time. After they guess the movie, they had to sing the song of that movie and for this 20 secs time was given. For guessing the movie name correctly they got 5 points and for singing the song correctly they got 10 points. This round was also repeated twice. The third round of the mains was the word round, where a word was written on the chit and the group had to sing a song with that word. After picking up the chit the groups were given 20 sec time to think and then sing the song. For singing the correct song they got +10 points and this round was also repeated twice.

The fourth round of mains was Antara Mukhra round. The group was given a Mukhra of the song at first and they had to guess the Antara of the same song, second the group was given the Antara of the song and they had to guess the Mukhra of the same song. For guessing the correct song +10 points was given and the time limit start immediately after song ended, and the time limit was 1 min.

The fifth round for mains was the visual round, where the groups had to guess the song and then sing the particular song after the video clip was played. This round was conducted with the help of Placards, who ever raised the Placards before the video ended was not given the opportunity to guess the song. There were negative markings for wrong guessing. The time limit started right after the video ended, for guessing the song correctly they got +5 marks and for wrong guessing of the song -5 marks was given and for singing the song correctly +10 marks was given.

The last round for mains was the emoji round; where some emojis were showed in a sequence which reflected a song. The groups had to guess the song and sing it. The round was also conducted with the help of the placards, who ever raised the placards first could answer, they could answer only once. For guessing the right song +10 points and for singing the song with correct lyrics +10 points and for wrong lyrics -10 points was given.

After those six rounds three groups were chosen from the six groups who were the 1st, 2nd and 3rd position holders of the program, and they were felicitated with the medals by the teachers on that day itself.
