Salad Designing Competition

Date:	24/2/24
Venue:	AV Room 4
Duration:	11.00am-3.00pm
Name of the In charge (Teachers):	Dr. Dipankar Shome
Name of the In charge (Students):	Ritika Kharkerlang, Khiwar Khumlo & M.Kishan Singha

The Culinary Club of St. Edmund's college, Shillong, organized a Salad Designing Competition on the occasion of college week i.e EDBLAZON 2024 held on 24th February 2024 in the college premises. The event aimed at promoting culinary artistry and also to provide a platform to the students to showcase their creativity in terms of presentation, those who participated in the Salad Designing Workshop hosted by the same club, in the previous year.

A total of 13 students (paired up in 5 groups) participated in the competition and their enthusiasm and passion for culinary creativity were evident in their salad creations. Inauguration of the event was done at around 11.am, following which the participants were required to make their respective salad preparations, within a given time limit of two hours.

The judging panel consisted of Dr. Sanjiban Goswami, HOD of Botany Department who evaluated the salads based on criteria such as presentation, designing, creativity & innovation and also on the basis of cleanliness & hygiene. The judging session started around 1:15pm and some questions such as "what is the scientific name of cucumber and importance of carrots in our daily life" were asked by Dr. Sanjiban to the participants. The participants displayed unique types of both vegetable and fruit salads such as farm fantasy, peacock salad, etc. They also explained the speciality of their salads and the importance of including it in our daily diet. Special emphasis was given on the hygiene considerations and the culinary tools used while preparing and dressing of the final product.

With Dr.Sanjiban's expertise, he ensured a fair and thorough assessment of each salad and the top three salad were chosen and the prize distribution was held on the very same day. Special thanks to Dr. Dipankar Shome as the whole event was coordinated under his guidance.

FOOD-FEST 2024

Date:	26/2/24
Venue:	Botanical Garden
Duration:	11.00am-5.00pm
Name of the In charge (Teachers):	Dr. Dipankar Shome, Dr.Jasmine, T Sawian, Dr.Rituparna Rajendra, Prof.Ainamlin Dkhar & Prof.Larihun Jeengaph
Name of the In charge (Students):	Ritika Kharkerlang, Khiwar Khumlo & M.Kishan Singha

The Culinary Club of St. Edmund's college, Shillong, organized a Food fest Competition on the occasion of college week i.e EDBLAZON 2024 held on 26th February 2024 in the college premises. This event aimed at embracing the rich diverse culinary culture and heritage of different regions, promoting unity and teamwork qualities as well as providing a platform for aspiring food enthusiasts and entrepreneurs.

At 11:00 am, the inauguration of the event took place which was done by Br. Benjamin (Principal, St. Edmund's Higher Secondary) along with Dr.Br.Simon Coelho (Principal) and Prof.Monotosh Chakravarty (Vice Principal, Administration). In all, there were 34 stalls (including 2 stalls set up for charity purpose and a special stall set up by a Teacher) comprising of 4 participants each. In aggregate, there were 128 participants. The food items were categorized into 9 types-Traditional, Asian, Mexican, Continental, Mediterranean, Desserts, Bakery, Snacks and Beverages. Some of the dishes were Kimbap, Dohneiong, Wak Kapa, Crepes, Fruit Salad, etc. The Judging panel consisted of 7 teachers- Dr.Jasmine T. Sawian, Dr.Rituparna Rajendra, Miss Larihun Jeengaph, Miss Ainamlin Dkhar, Dr.Sanjiban Goswami, Dr.Jayanti

Shadap and Miss Iba Nonghuloo

At around 11.15 am, the judges set on their culinary adventure as the judging session started and each of the stalls were evaluated based on criteria such as captions, knowledge of the recipe, taste, texture, aroma/flavor, creativity/uniqueness, and overall presentation/appearance. All the judges were quite satisfied with preparations and presentations of food stuffs made by each of the stalls. Dr.Jasmine, one of the judges also commented on the uniqueness of "The Royal Taste of Tripura" stall and rich taste of 'Chak-Hao Kheer' (dish) from "Ene Gi Potfam"stall.

Following this, the stalls were opened to all the students, faculty and teachers to purchase and taste the food preparations. It was decided that price should not exceed ₹ 100 and also a mandatory rule of making availability of packaging service. Every customer was seen to be satisfied with the large variety of food choices, different cuisines and the stalls could sufficiently fulfil the food demand from the whole college. All the stalls maintained hygiene and cleanliness and it was evident that many enjoyed the event as the venue had transformed into a bustling culinary hub.

Brochure

The brochure features a central illustration of a food stall with a red and white striped awning. On the stall, there are various food items including a burger, fries, a drink, a panda-shaped container, and a cake. A QR code is positioned to the left of the stall. The background is dark with string lights and a large sign that reads 'EDBLAZON'. The text 'THE CULINARY CLUB, SEC INVITES YOU TO' is written above 'FOODFEST'. The stall number '2024' and the event date '26/2/24' are displayed. A list of teachers in charge is provided, along with contact information for Ritika, Khiwar, and Kishan. The venue is Botanical Garden.

Poster Campaign on the occasion of International Tea Day

Date:	21 st May, 2024
Venue:	College Campus, St. Edmund's College, Shillong
Nature:	Co-curricular
No. of Participating Students	10

International Tea Day is celebrated on 21st May every year all over the world to recognise the history, cultural significance and economic importance of tea. It is coordinated by the Food & Agricultural Organisation of United Nations.

On 21st May 2024, the Culinary Club of St. Edmund's College also celebrated 'International Tea Day' through a poster designing competition, and for this purpose the executive members brought out a notification that was circulated beforehand inviting the interested participants to submit their posters on or before 7th May 2023.

Members prepared posters emphasizing the significance of tea in our daily life, and also showcasing their artistic skill of presentation. All the posters received were displayed on the 21st May 2024, that also followed by their ranking.
