TOTAL PARTICIPANTS:

Students: 47

Faculty: 12

Others: 06

KEY HIGHLIGHTS:

Bio-entrepreneurship is an academic powered entrepreneurship driven by science-based innovation. The resource person shared her journey from a student to a bioentrepreneur. As she received the chief minister award for upcoming start up, the journey was full of challenges and at the same time rejoice for coming with successful products.

OUTCOME:

The resource personnel focused on the need to have incubation centres in higher educational Institutions such that the students can be motivated to identify specific issues related to local needs such as waste management, environmental protection etc.
