12. OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME:

Women and children have faced a lot of abuse and harassment since long before the pandemic. During the pandemic, the cases of domestic violence has increased and with the lockdown and schools being shut, children coming from vulnerable homes are left to face a number of consequences especially with a high stress level over many overwhelming situations such as, unemployment which would subsequently lead to poverty etc. The Student learnt that the organization has been able to come up with ways to bring down the cases during such a time through the help of technology and awareness programs as well as collaborations with other organizations

12. OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME:

The student through this session learned about the preventive programs which are associated with reduced potential for drugs use. COSEHDA and its team provide counsellors with knowledge on drugs, drug addiction and its consequences, drug treatments and relapse prevention therapy to enhance the effectiveness of their work with drug users and recovering drugs addict. They learned that if an individual abuse harmful substances it may lead to certain consequences like mental and physical conditions, although some of the conditions maybe temporary but their effects may last for a life time.
