14. OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAMME

Thomas Jones was a Welsh Christian Missionary, who worked among the Khasi peoples of Meghalaya and Assam in India and of Bangladesh. He recorded the Khasi language in Roman Script, and the inscription on his gravestone calls him "The founding father of the Khasi Alphabets and Literature"

The outcomes of the Programme within one hour made the teachers and students a long time listen to Resouces person talk. It gives also the opportunities for the students to interact and experience different content styles.
