

MUSIC SOCIETY: ST. EDMUND'S COLLEGE

The Music Society officially met virtually for the first time on 10th June 2021. Members of staff in the meeting were Bertrand Dkhar (Computer Science), Damewanmi Suchiang (Environmental Science), Larihun Jeengaph (Environmental Science), Dr. Duwaki Rangad (Zoology) and Rajesh Dutta (Economics).

The inaugural meeting discussed the possibilities and challenges of holding online programs. We decided to circulate a Google form for registration of students and to collect some data on their interests. A flyer was circulated and information put up in the College website. Interested Students were encouraged to design a logo with a meaningful motto for the society and submit their creative work by 18th June 2021.

On 18th June 2021, the faculty members met the 26 registered students and did the following:

- (a) Voted on the Music Society logo and motto. The design and words by Miss Ibakordor Kharmih, (6th Semester BCA) was selected.
- (b) 4 students were chosen for the core committee: Jason Nashville Laloo (presently 5th Sem, Economics), Habiba Khanam (presently 3rd Sem, BSW), Banlamba Dohling (presently 3rd Sem, Physics) and Ibakordor Kharmih (passed her 6th Sem BCA but is still a member)
- (c) Took the decision to officially inaugurate the Music Society on World Music Day, 21st June 2021 with an online Musical Evening
- (d) Requested students members to record a one minute performance and email to the Music Society
- (e) Decided to reach out to ex-Edmundians who have excelled in music and request their participation on World Music Day

The Core Committee met again on 19th and 20th June 2021 and finalized the invitation and the World Music Day program for 21st June 2021.

We had received 33 recorded performances: 8 from past pupils, 3 from our Staff and 22 from our Students members.

Invitation for the program was circulated among Staff and Students of the College and past-pupil participants.

❖ 21st June 2021, Celebration of World Music Day

The online Zoom program started at 5pm. The SEC Music Society was officially inaugurated by Br Simon Coelho, IQAC Coordinator. Videos received from students were shared with the participants. Over 140 persons joined the online session. Every individual performance was appreciated with wonderful words of encouragement shared in the Chat Box. The event went on uninterrupted for close to 2 hours.

 Music can calm our souls. Stay Dedicated.

On the day of showcasing the few recorded videos, we sought the much needed feedback from students. We learnt that students were shy and that competitions were intimidating. We therefore decided to do away with competitions in the future and instead simply encourage students to perform in any genre of their choice.

The Music Society is gradually being managed by extremely committed and competent Students. Along with them, we the faculty members form the Core Committee. Faculty members are there to listen to the voices of students, assist, advice and help in the execution of ideas. Our regular interaction and brain storming sessions have brought to the fore numerous ideas. Some we have had to defer given the protocols associated with Covid 19. A few germinated and we believe that we can only move forward in 2022.

Students in the Music Society are gifted with amazing skills. Be it organizing or performance, they instil a sense of confidence. With a platform provided to showcase and harness their gifts, they have individually grown, displayed tremendous teamwork and continue to inspire others.

The Music Society takes the opportunity to express a deep sense of gratitude to Students in the Core Team who have tirelessly worked behind the scenes, dedicating considerable time and effort for the success of all programmes.

The Music Society would like to thank the management of the College for its continuous support of the Society's activities.
