ST.EDMUND'S COLLEGE POLICY FOR STUDENT SPONSORSHIP

- (a) Students have to apply to the office of the Rector, St. Edmund's College campus for sponsorship with all relevant documents.
- (b) Tribal students don't get sponsorships if they enjoy Scholarships from Govt.
- (c) Students are interviewed to verify their documents & genuineness of the financial status of the family.
- (d) The current practices is to initially offer a 50% concession/sponsorship for students whose parents are employed in the college as support staff. This percentage is revised based on the students' performance in the semester exams. For subsequent semesters, it would go up to the maximum of 75% depending on the academic performance.
- (e) The students are expected to score at least 45% in their Honours Subject.
- (f) Other economically deserving students are to be referred by the Principal to the Rector office, after assessing the need.
- (g) Each case is judged on its merit at the Executive Committee Level.
- (h) A cheque is issued by the Sponsoring Body for the student to make the payment in the Bank. A receipt of which is to be returned to the Rector's office.
- (i) All of the above policies are revised each semester/year.
