ST. EDMUND'S COLLEGE POLICY FOR SUPPORT TO THE VISUALLY IMPAIRED

- (a) St. Edmund's College has made immense efforts to draw students that are Visually Impaired by advertising especially on the College Website, through word of mouth, especially through ex-students.
- (b) The college has a designated teacher to keep in touch with the students to solve any difficulties they may face and to offer them a Contact Person.
- (c) The college has an understanding with the Blind Foundation, Bengaluru to support the students.
- (d) The College has taken the responsibility to procure specially configured Laptops that will make learning student friendly for the Visually Impaired.
- (e) The Vice Principal is assigned to keep in touch with the Visually Impaired students and have at least two meetings with them in a given semester.
- (f) The attendance and the academic progress of all such students and their concerns are given special attention.
- (g) Every effort is made to ensure that the students have the necessary skills to either be gainfully employed or to continue with higher studies.
- (h) All of the above policies are reviewed periodically.
