

Job Oriented Courses:

The College sponsored COC in Clinical Biochemistry conducted by the Biochemistry Department and this course was useful for students to enter job related to the course conducted by the College.

The College also conducts a course on computer maintenance and hardware and a number of students have profited out of this course.