

Dr. Capt. KP Pallavi Malhan (R)

Vice Principal (Academics)

Dr.Capt.KP Pallavi Malhan (R)joined St. Edmund’s College as the Vice Principal (Academics) on the 1st of September 2022.

She received her Ph.D. from the Department of Political Science at the University of Pune, Maharashtra. With over 25 years of experience in the education sector, she holds comprehensive insights into pedagogical practices, including planning and managing academic schedules, curriculum development and implementation, coordination of educational programs, and policy formulation and planning.She believes that technology and Artificial Intelligence need to be integrated as essential tools to enhance learning.

She has had the honour of serving in the Education Corps of the Indian Army for five years, assuming roles such as Education Officerand Instructor in the Department of Political Science and also officiating as the Head of Department at the esteemed National Defence Academy (NDA), Khadakwasla, Pune. She has done her Business Administration program from the Symbiosis Institute of Management Studies, Pune.She has travelled extensively in India and abroad in connection with her academic, research and humanitarian pursuits, including academic visits tothe UK, the UAE and the People’s Republic of China. Her contributions extend to publications in distinguished defence and media circles, focusing on foreign affairs and bilateral relations.

Throughout her career, she has been a passionate advocate of humanitarian initiatives, both during her tenure in the Army and with various non-governmental organizations. She is currently engaged in addressing inclusivity issues at St. Edmund’s College.She has been the recipient ofprofessional and humanitarian awards.